

Toppan's Sustainability Activities Recognized by RobecoSAM
Inclusion in RobecoSAM Sustainability Yearbook highlights excellent ESG performance

Tokyo – February 22, 2019 – Toppan Printing (Toppan) (TSE:7911), a global leader in communication, packaging, décor materials, and electronics solutions, has been included in the RobecoSAM Sustainability Yearbook 2019. Toppan was the only Asian firm awarded the Bronze Class distinction in the category of Commercial Services & Supplies.

Sustainability Award Bronze Class 2019

RobecoSAM assesses the environmental, social, and governance (ESG) performance of more than 2,600 companies around the world every year. The top rated companies are featured in the Sustainability Yearbook. The RobecoSAM award, which highly rates Toppan's environmental reporting and efficiency, adds to previous accolades, including listing in the Dow Jones Sustainability Index for the past two years.

Toppan joined the United Nations Global Compact in 2006 and aligns its activities and targets with the Sustainable Development Goals. The company's multifaceted activities and efforts to contribute to a sustainable society have received widespread recognition.

"Toppan sees sustainability initiatives as essential for a business in the 21st century," said Shikiko Kasahara, General Manager of Sustainability Promotion at Toppan. "We have recently redefined Toppan's business fields to strengthen our focus on addressing challenges in such areas as healthcare, education, energy, and food resources. This award from RobecoSAM shows that Toppan is moving in the right direction and cements our reputation as an organization driven by long-term goals that seek to create value for the whole of society."
